- The hospital spaceship (The Curse of the Black Spot)
- The Gangers' Acid Well Crypt (The Rebel Flesh / The Almost People)
- The Birthing Suite on Demon's Run (A Good Man Goes to War)

PAST PRESENT FUTURE

Stories in the past, present and days yet to come

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION

What proportion of the Doctor's adventures take place on Earth or in the stars?

NAMEDROPPER

The Doctor is an incorrigible namedropper. Just look at the people he claims to have met – or even married. But as we know from River, he also lies. Maybe he was telling porkies about a few of these.

- Dante Alighieri – The Doctor has the poet's details in his address book. (The Two Doctors)
- Alexander the Great – After his third regeneration, the Fourth Doctor mistook the Brigadier for Alexander. (Robot)
- Archimedes – The Doctor has the philosopher's details in his address book. He also thinks he's a bit wet. (The Two Doctors)
- Han Christian Andersen – The Doctor provided the Danish fairy-tale writer with the idea for The Emperor's New Clothes. (The Romans)
- Marie Antoinette – The French Queen gave the Doctor a picklock. (Pyramids of Mars)

DESSERTS

- Marsh Minnows (The Trial of a Time Lord: Mindwarp) – green and slimy, like mother used to make
- Fresh Plaup Salad (The Greatest Show in the Galaxy) – a Vulpana delicacy, not for those with weak stomachs

DRINKS

- Zaphic shake (The Long Game) – available in many flavours, including beef. Yum!
- Herbabaculum vitae Protein Shake (Revelation of the Daleks) – sup the staff of life
- Fizzade (Paradise Towers) – ice hot!
- Vitex Lite (Rise of the Cybermen) – new cherry flavour – Trust us on this!

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

- Hypervodka (The Doctor Dances) – make your last requests
- Voxnic (Slipback) – available by the glass or per bottle

NOTE: Unfortunately, Alzarian Riverfruit has been taken off the menu, due to an unexpected spider infestation. The management apologises for any disappointment.

Krynoid Salad is also off due to staff shortage/mutation.

TECHNOLOGY IN DOCTOR WHO

‘This doesn’t roll along on wheels, you know?’

The Doctor, An Unearthly Child

TARDISEs, sonic screwdrivers, psychic papers, Whomobiles and spritely yellow roadsters – the Doctor has piloted, zapped, flashed and driven them all in 50 years of travel.
